

3 WOMAN SHOW We Three

Barbara

Summers Edwards

Barbara was born in Southeastern Idaho. Barbara worked as a freelance illustrator and then evolved as a fine art oil and watercolor painter. The Utah Arts Council purchased two of her paintings for the State of Utah's Permanent Collection. One of those, "Gotcha!" hangs in the Governor's Mansion in the State of Utah. Some of Barbara's other exhibits and awards include: Oil Painters of America National and Regional Exhibits: National Award of Excellence Utah Watercolor Society: Award of Excellence and Intermountain Society of Artists: First Place Painting Award.

Dilleen

Humphries Marsh

Dilleen was born in Texas and grew up in Idaho. She worked for 14 years as a Designer and Senior Designer for The New Era Magazine, an LDS Church publication for teens. She has won awards at the Springville Salon, and Sears Dixie Invitational among others. For 11 years Dilleen worked with children in the Salt Lake City school district developing art curriculum and has illustrated 10 children's books. "I am the possibility of bold, clear communication and joy through my art."

Roxane

Mitchell Pfister

Roxane was born in Boise, Idaho and currently lives in Cache Valley with her husband, Jim. "For me the creative process is a demanding one that never ceases to challenge those hardy souls brave enough to take it on. To be able to create something truly beautiful is a lifetime aspiration." Roxane graduated from USU with a Bachelors of Fine Art and a Masters degree in statistics. As both a fine art oil and watercolor painter, she has exhibited at Logan Fine Art, Eccles Fine Art Center, and St. John's Episcopal Church.

Reception: June 13th , 6pm - 9pm • Show Run: June 13th - July 5th
Regular Gallery hours are Monday - Saturday 10 am - 6pm

Logan Fine Art Gallery

100 NORTH 60 WEST, LOGAN, UT 84321 • 435 753-0333